See what our clients have to say about us:

Obsidian Vision helped us realize the essential components of the message we wanted to communicate, then created a working plan to realize that vision and executed every element superbly. We are grateful for their excellent professional assistance. They are fun to work with, creative, dependable, and very efficient. I strongly recommend Obsidian Vision's services for your next web project.

Bennett Johnston - Gingko Memory Game

After a series of setbacks with other developers, I hired Obsidian Vision on the recommendation of a trusted friend. Finally, of four developers I worked with to complete my site, Molly was the ONLY one who made it happen, working swiftly and with integrity. I value her thoughtful approach and the intelligence she brings to her work. She also understands good design, and made contributions to my own design that improved the site. After finding Molly for my web development, I've no need to look anywhere else.

While my web site was not extremely complicated, Molly and the Obsidian Vision team were able to clearly articulate the wire frames and flow on paper before starting the work. I could see the end result in a summarized document before they started. They did exactly what they planned. The work Molly and the Obsidian Vision team has done for me has generated thousands of dollars in business over the last five years. People find what they need from my site and book me. Because of the professionalism in the way the site is designed, they have confidence in my ability to perform and I am able to charge fees at the top end of my industry.

Hi, I love it. Makes me feel so official! Especially like what you did with the umbrella on the beach scene. Why didn't I think of that!
